

we support xm radio and think the business should not be regulated and the old fashioned am and fm should not wine about xm competition